any poor soul. But I have not made any new resolutions, as I fail to keep the old ones, just while I think of it I was searching through your closet a while since I came across a sheet of paper on which was written a whole lot of good resolutions for the new year and had your signature attached. They were all good and I trust the most of them have been kept and acted upon.

Ora and H - have come in from a skate at Rock just finished their supper. There was quite a company on the ice, among them were Grace Stone and her friend Cora Levy. I cannot but think how sad these Hollidays are to Ernest Hunter when they otherwise
